Description

The villa is of a modern Thai-Bali design, in an L-shaped layout. The covered double car port at the front creates a fine looking entrance, steps lead up to the pool area and the house. The main living space is to the side and the bedrooms run along the back of the property. This layout ensures privacy and pleasant views from all rooms, as well as direct access to the pool or terrace. The open plan lounge, kitchen and dining area features a high vaulted ceiling with beams following the shape of the pointed roof. Not only an attractive and interesting detail, the ceiling creates a cool and bright space. The modern, high quality kitchen is built in and the property comes fully furnished. The three bedrooms all have en-suite bathrooms, hard wood flooring and fitted wardrobes. The en-suite bathroom of the mater suite also has a large bathtub. An additional terrace at the side of the property can be accessed from the third bedroom and the living area. There is a sala at the end of the pool which provides a shaded area for relaxing, eating or working and the property also has it s own steam room Internally the villas are over 200 sq.m. on land areas of 550 sq.m. The mountainous surroundings create a pleasant environment and peaceful views. There is mains water supply and quality three phase electric. The villas are located on a small soi set back from the main road which leads to Chalong to the north and Rawai and Nai Harn to the south. This whole area has markets, supermarkets, all types of shops and restaurants, providing everything you could need. Available for rent on 14 Feb,2014.
